WPA: Writing Program Administration is published three times a year—fall, winter, and spring—by the Council of Writing Program Administrators and the Office of College Information and Publications, Brooklyn College, City University of New York.

The Editors of WPA invite contributions that are appropriate to the interests and concerns of those who administer writing programs in American and Canadian colleges and universities. Articles on teaching writing or research in composition are acceptable only if they deal with the relationship of these activities to program administration.

Article length (flexible), 2,000-4,000 words. Authors should submit two copies and retain a copy for their own files. Material should be suitably documented, using the MLA Handbook, although as much reference as possible should be included within the text. Annotated bibliographies accompanying articles are encouraged, as well as any other apparatus which might make material more conceptually and practically valuable to working writing program administrators. The editors reserve the right to edit manuscripts accepted for publication to conform with the style of the journal. Manuscripts cannot be returned unless accompanied by a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Article deadlines: fall and winter issues, January 15; spring issue, September 15. Relevant announcements are also acceptable. Announcement deadlines: fall issue, August 1; winter issue, October 1; spring issue, January 5. Address contributions and editorial correspondence to Kenneth A. Bruffee, Editor, WPA, English Department, Brooklyn College, CUNY, Brooklyn, New York 11210.

Subscription with membership in the Council of Writing Program Administrators: $10/year ($11.50 outside U.S.). Institutional subscription: $20/year ($21.50 outside U.S.).
