Authors' Guide

WPA: Writing Program Administration publishes articles and essays concerning the organization, administration, practices, and aims of college and university writing programs. Possible topics include the education and support of writing teachers; the intellectual and administrative work of WPAs; the situation of writing programs within both academic institutions and broader contexts; the programmatic implications of current theories, technologies, and research; relationships between WPAs and other administrators and between writing and other academic programs; placement; assessment; and the professional status of WPAs.

The previous list is meant to be suggestive, not exhaustive, but contributions must be appropriate to the interests and concerns of those who administer writing programs. The editors welcome empirical research (quantitative as well as qualitative), historical research, and theoretical, essayistic, or reflective pieces.

The length of submissions should be approximately 2,000 to 5,000 words, although the journal occasionally will publish shorter or longer pieces when the subject matter warrants. Articles should be suitably documented using the current MLA Style Manual. For citations of Internet resources, use the Columbia Guide to Online Style. Please submit three copies of manuscripts, with the author identified only on a separate cover letter. Include a self-addressed stamped envelope if you would like a copy returned. Submissions are anonymously reviewed by the Editorial Board. The editors will respond within three months after the receipt of the submission.

Authors whose work is accepted for publication will be asked to submit final versions in both print and electronic form. Please double-check all citations. Electronic versions of articles should be submitted as MS Word files (preferred) or as rich text format (.rtf) files. Tables should be saved in the program in which they were produced; authors should indicate program type in their correspondence with the editors. Illustrations should be submitted as print-ready copy in electronic format. Authors are responsible for seeking and securing permissions to use images that they did not create on their own. Authors will also be asked to submit a 100-word biography for inclusion in the "Contributors" section of the journal.

REVIEWS

WPA publishes reviews of books related to writing programs and their administration. Publishers are invited to send appropriate professional books to Jeanne Rose, Pennsylvania State University-Berks, or Lori Salem, Temple University, who assign reviews.

ANNOUNCEMENTS AND CALLS

Relevant announcements and calls for papers will be published as space permits. Announcements should not exceed 500 words, and calls for proposals/participation should not exceed 1,000 words. Please include contact information and/or links for further information. Submission deadlines in calls should be no sooner than January 1 for the fall/winter issue and June 1 for the spring issue. Please e-mail your calls and announcements to Bill Macauley (wmacauley@wooster.edu) and include the text in both the body of the message and as an MS Word attachment.
